You are Cordially Invited to join ….

Nash-Rocky Mount Public Schools in collaboration with First Baptist Church in Spring Hope, NC and Nash UNC Health in a 4 week workshop to learn practical tools for positive parenting. During this interactive workshop, participants will learn and engage in practical skills that promote the academic success and social well-being of their children. Participants will gain important leadership skills and engage in healthy dialogue that leads to collaborative problem-solving. Also, participants will walk away with positive leadership skills that will make them champions in their families, at home for student success, in their schools and communities.

Child care will be provided for students in grades K-6. Students will participate in interactive learning activities and games while parents are learning and practicing their techniques and building on strengths.

WORKSHOP TOPICS:

- Positive Parenting
- Creating Confident Kids
- Communication That Works
- Creating Structure for Achievement
- Discipline Practice for Success
- What Children & Teens Need To Succeed
- Parents Engaged for Academic Success

* A light dinner will be served from 7:15 pm – 7:45 pm to participants and children attending child care.
