

Nash-Rocky Mount Public Schools

Reads

Did you know reading five books while students are out during the summer can help them maintain reading skills while they are away from the classroom? Please donate new or gently used books for kindergarten through 5th grade students. Books can be dropped off at your local elementary school or central office. For more information contact, Melissa Dancy-Smith, Executive Director of Elementary Education.

Book Drive ends May 13th.

To learn more, click
HERE.